WEEK IN SOCIETY

Reception will follow reception. Every week there is a brilliant german on the social calendar; teas, informal "at homes," card parties and club meetings are every day on the programme. With at the Governor's Mansion, when the first lady of the Commonwealth welcomed to her home nearly 2,000 guests, Richmond's society formally renounced allegience to the old year and acknowledged the scepter of the new. The trans-ition from an atmosphere of courts and chivalry and romances of the poetic part to a large reception hall decorated with roses and palms, with soft lights and spirited music, was not so abrupt after all: for many had been at the inauguration in the morning and attended the golf reception and the hunt club lunch in the afternoon. Altogether the New Year in society bids fair to be one that will be remembered for its brilliant entertainments and revival of old Virginia

The popularity of Governor and Mrs. A. The popularity of Governor and Mrs. A.

Montague was fitly attested Wednesday night at the Mansion, which was ablaze with light and thronged with people between the hours of 9 and 11 o'clock.
The receiving party was untiring in their hospitality, shaking hands with nearly 2,000 people.

husband, Governor Montague, was the center of attraction, and looked extremelly handsome in a gown of white net, appliqued to form a rosebud, which was worn over a foundation of white pleated chiffon and satin, the girdle being of fine pleated silk. Her ornaments were diamonds.

Mrs. Joseph E. Willard looked charming in an Egyptian lace gown, embroidered with delicate tinted flowers and ferns and spangled w' h butterflies. She carried

A bouquet of pu.ple orchids.

Mrs. Willian A. Anderson was in black velvet, which suited her admirably. The collar was of Duchess and rose point lace. Mrs. Byron, of Hagerstown, Md., was much admired in a black velvet en train, with a simple bertha of real lace, and around her neck being ropes of lovely pearls. A pink rosebud was tucked in her pearls. A pink rosebud was tucked in her hair, her bouquet being composed of the same flower.

In fact, all the reception committee were noticed for their handsome toilets. The uniforms of the military dignitaries and the handsome ecloring noticed in the dresses of the daughters of Virginia, made Wednesday's reception as brilliant as any in the history of inaugural receptions.

The week was ushered in by a brilliant dance at the Masonic Temple, given by the Richmond German Club.

The halls were beautifully decorated by Hammond with ropes of smilax, palms and roses. The five tables in the dining-room had magnificent center-pleces of

Colonel Jo Lane Stern led the cotilion with Miss Mary Morton, of Baltimore, and introduced many new and pretty

The lady dancers were: Mesdames Courtiand Smith, of Baltimore; John Blankenship, Jefferson Wallace, Harry Blankelsing, George Ben Johnston, John Harrison, E. Randolph Whiliams, E. J. Wills, Austin Brockenbrough, W. S. P. Mayo, John W. Atkinson, Jr., C. C. Pinck-ncy, R. Lancaster Williams, Thomas N. Carter, Charles Evelyn Smith, Thomas Bolling, Allan Donnan, Thomas Adkins, Gideon Davenport, Waller Morton, Misses Anna Dean Carr, Helen Christian, Marga-Anna Dean Carr, Heien Christian, Mangaret and Grace Shields, Mabel Walker, Lilly Hill, Lucy and May Hayes, Annie and Lelia Gray, Moran, of Detroit; C. Goode, of England; Marie Webster, Bessie Goode, of England; Marie Webster, Bessie and Elie Baker, Hattie Eliott, of Savannah; C. James, of New York; Maria Moseley, Alice Larcomb, of Washington; Emily Jennings, Kate and Sophie Meredith, Adair Minor, Eda Atkinson, Elsie Cameron, Sue Haxall, of Loudoun; Nannie Cooke, Mary Donnan, Life Mary, of North Cooke, Mary Donnan, Lila Mayo, of Nor-folk; Miles, of New Orleans; Louise Mayo, Elizabeth and Elise Devenport, Mary Buford, Fannie and Hattie Ross, Loullie and Josephine Whitlock, Henning-ham Spilman, Ann Tennant, Edna Forbes, Jean Cameron and Mary Craik, of Louis-

Mr. Alexander Cameron gave one of the handsomest entertainments of the week last Thursday night. The table was covered with Battenburg lace, over crim-son satin. Silver candelabra, holding crimson-shaded tapers, surrounded a cut-glass vase of American Beauties. The viands were especially tempting, conpin. Scotch grouse, black cock, and English pheasants, which were sent Mr. Cameron from abroad. The wines were most excellent. Several toasts were drunk with enthusiasm, and in reply to one, Governor Tyler made a witty speech, which was followed by one from Mr. Comeron.

Those present were: Dr. O. A. Cren-shaw, Major E. T. D. Myers, Captain Frank Chamberlayne, Mr. J. H. Montague, Mr. Chuics Stringfellow, Mr. Alfred Harris, Mr. John Atkinson, Mr. Andrew Christian, Mr. Brydon Tennant, Mr. Landon Cabell, Colonel Archer Anderson Major John George, Mr. Frank Boykin, Judge Keith, Judge L. L. Lewis, Mr. John Branch, ex-Governor J. Hoge Tyler, Mr. William Cameron of Petersburg, Mr. Barton Haxall Cameron, and Mr. Alexander Cameron, Jr.

Mr. Cameron will leave on a trip to the Holy Land early in February.

Mr. and Mrs. Jonas Marcuse gave a dinner, followed by a reception. New Year's night, the occasion being the sevemieth birthday of Mr. Marcuse. The house was beautifully decorated and connected by a canvassed porch, which was occurred in smilax, to Mrs. Hirsh's house, which adjoins, the two houses being thronged with guests from 9 to 11 o'clock, when punch was served and Prof. Reinbardt's ochestra played sweet music. The guests at the dinner included Mr. and Mrs. Jones Marcuse, Mr. and Mrs. Meyer Kirsh, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac J. Marcuse, Mr. and Mrs. Milton E. Marcuse, Mr. and Mrs. Moses M. Marcuse, Mrs. Mariana Stroock and Mrs. A. Brummer, of New York, sisters of Mr. Marcuse; Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Stroock and sons, Sylvan and Betram, from New York; Mr. Sol M. Stroock, Mr. David Kahn, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. issac Baller, of Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. Julius Straus, Mrs. Rosalie Held, Mrs. Joseph Kirsh, Mr. Charles Mitteldorfer, the Rev. Dr. and Mrs. E. N. Calisch, Miss Lola Opelant, of Jersey City, N. J., and Miss Sallie L. May.

Mrs. Andrew W. Kent. & New York, was honored by an informal "at home" New Year's Day by her hostess, Miss

There is a general suspension of so-cial doings during the holidays in an-ticipation of the functions the first of January. It is the lull before the storm— the pause before the blast of trumpets— and now the New Year is ushered in and the season fully opened. There will be no rest for tired feet and weary eyes. Reception will follow reception. Every George Bryan, Mr. and Mrs Wyndhan George Bryan, Mr. and Mrs Wyncham Meredith, Miss Kathleen Anderson, Miss Sally Anderson, Mr. John Rutherford, Marion Harris, Jula Harri hrd hr ddd Misses Josephine Putney, Mary Hayes, Marion Harris, Jula Harris, Mrs. Nannie Werth, Mr. auarion Dimmock, Mr. Robert Daniels, Misses anrigaret and Manufather Changfellow, Mr. Hen. Anderson, Mr. Stringfellow, Mr. Henr Anderson, Stringfellow, Mr. Hell A Landerson, John Skelton Williams, Misses Adele and Lulie Williams, Mr. and Ars. Carter Scott, Mrs. Haymond Mancha, Miss Caroline Holladay, Ar. Willie Skelton, Mr. Landon Cabell, Mr. Alston Cabell, and Mr. Blair R. Burwell, of Texas.

New Year's Day at the Deep Run Hunt Club was one that will be remembered by all that attended as one of the pleasby all that attended as one of the pleas-antest in the club's history. Many ladles were among the riders, while society drove out in full force. The lady riders were Mrs. Coxe, Miss Della Walker, Miss were Mrs. Coxe, Miss Della Walker, Miss Elsie Cameron, Miss Blacker, Miss Helen Christian, Miss Claudia Palmer. Among those in the hunt-rooms in handsome cestumes were Mr. and Mrs. Carter Scott, Miss Goode, of England; Mrs. Mayo, Miss Myles, of New Orleans; Miss Elizabeth Brander, Miss Eda Atkinson, Miss Mabei Walker, Mr. and Mrs. E T. D. Myers, Jr., Miss Hamilton, of Baltimore: Mrs. Samuel Regester, Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Wallace, Mr. Jeffrey Montague, and many others. gue, and many others.

A wedding, noticed for its elegant simplicity, was that of Miss Miriam Boykin and Mr. Robert Hunt Norment, who were married Thursday night at Grace Episcopal Church, which was filled with relatives and friends.

relatives and friends.

The bride, who entered with her brother, Mr. W. J. Beykin, wore a handsome gown of blue cloth and a turban of mink trimmed with lace and pink roses and carried a shower of illies.

Miss Elsie Boykin, sister of the bride.

was maid of honor, wearing a reseda green was maid of honor, wearing a reseou green crepe de chine and carried pink roses, and was preceded by the ushers, who were Messrs. Frnk M. Boykin, of Boston, brother of the bride; Bernard Jacobs, Godwin Boykin, William J. Binford, Lindsey J. Leverett, of Atlanta, and Dr. M. B. Rudd.

Mr. Harry B. Norment, of California, seted as best man and, with the groom.

acted as best man, and, with the groom, met the bridal party at the altar, Rev.

met the bridal party at the altar, Rev. Landon R. Mason and Dr. R. P. Kerr being the officiating clergymen.

Imediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Norment left for New York. Before going to live in New Orleans they will r turn to this city for a few days. The br de is the daughter of Mrs. Samuel H. Boykin and the groom a son of Mr. P. H. Norment, of this city.

Among the out-of-town guests were: Miss Grace Eldridge, of Boston; Mr. C. T. Boykin, of Washington; Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Beykin and Miss Fanny Boykin, of Wilson, N. C., and Mr. Doran Norment, of Williamsburg; Mrs. Gowan Duesenberw, of Concord, N. C. nunnnnnanttPüüms hrd lmf wyp mfwwy nannannattPfifims hrd lmf wyp mfwwy

Miss Anna Belle Forbes entertained in a charming maner in honor of the New Year.

The table was beautifully decorated in Jacqueminot roses, the center being a crimson Jack Horner pie, containing dainty souvenirs for the guests, who were Misses Cleveland Randolph, Carrie Armi-stead, Carrie Neal, Elise Parkinson, Annie Ronaldson, Mary Drake, Martha Rob-inson, Annie Harrison Morris, Lily Up-shur, Courtney Crump, Kitty Lancaster, Nellie Davenport, Louise McAdams, Mamie Davenport and Alma Cecil.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bryan entertained in honor of Governor and Mrs. J. Hoge Tyler Monday night at their country home, Laburnam. Those who were seated at the prettily decorated dinner table were: Governor and Mrs. J. Hoge Tyler, Governor-elect and Mrs. A. J. Montague, Judge and Mrs. James Keith, Judge and Mrs. E. C. Minor, Judge and Mrs. G. L. Christian and Kev. and Mrs. B. M. Randolph

Mesdames Richard Wilson and John

Cylien were the chaperones of the sub-scription dance which was given Thurs-day night at the Masonic Temple, the honors of leading being shared by Messrs. Henry Hotchkiss and Richard Winston. Henry Hotchkiss and Richard Winston.

Among the dancers were Miss Stillwell, of Savannah; Miss Evelyn Deitrick, of Lorraine; Miss Michaux, ot Powhatan; the Misses James, Misses Daisy Chamberlayne, Dickerson, Johnson, Martha Ann Lundy, Marie Lightfoot, Bessle Ellyson, Amy
Werth, Louise Hickson, of Danville; Rebecca Bell, Margaret Watkins, Miss Blue, of New Orleans; Miss Young; Messrs. beeca Bell, Margaret Watkins, Miss Blue, of New Orleans; Miss Young; Messrs. Sam Tyler, Phillip Carter, Jefferson, of Petersburg; Richard Winston, Henry and Elmo Hetchkiss, Julian Bidgood, Charles Winge, of V. M. I.; B. Tucker, Fisher, Eddie Pierce, Charles Grant Byrd, Newton, Bruce, Bowa, Michaux, Douglas, Ellyson, Dr. Easly, David Leako, Frank Latane, Reid Venable, Velbedey, Oliver Davis Stuart Cooke F. Holladay, Oliver Davis, Stuart Cooke, F. T. Sutton, Lane Lacy, J. B. Lightfoot T. Sutton, and John Blunt.

Miss Carrie Block was married to Mr. William Ulimann on Monday at high noon, at the residence of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Block, No. 606 East

Grace Street, by Dr. E. N. Calisch. The bride looked charming in a g of white and carried a shower of l and roses. Miss Belle Block was maid of honor and wore a pretty dress of white organdy and carried maidenhair ferns.

Dr. L. Ullmann, father of the groom, was best man, and with the groom met the bridal party at the altar, which was made of palms and roses. Immediately after the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served, the table having a magnificent centerpiece of American Beauties. Mr. and Mrs. Ullmann left for Old Point. They sailed for Europe yesterday, to be absent three months. On their return they will reside in Springfield, Mo.

Among the out-of-town guests were Judge M. J. Block and Mr. S. S. Block, of Baltimore, Md., and Mr. Edward Rogers Tolfree, of New York.

which are to be followed by receptions, was given Thursday at the Jefferson Club and proved both an intellectual and social treat. Mrs. E. N. Calisch was the chairman of the afternoon, and Miss Maria Blair the lecturer. She was introduced to her audience of about a hundred by Dr. El N. Calisch who paid the speaker a graceful compliment.
"Shatford-on-Avon" was the subject so graphically described by the speaker, who showed throughout the talk her thorough understanding of Shakespeare and the appreciation of the beautiful. New Year's Day by her hostess. Miss Mary Weller Lewis.

The decorations were charming, consisting of holly and shaded candelabra sisting of holly and shaded candelabra.

Misses Rebecca Whitlock. Emily Rasb, the Blanche Binswanger, Louise Kaufman, per. You Can Always Find the Latest Styles in

HATS

And Furnishing Goods

MUSCOE H. GARNETT'S Eighth and Main.

These lectures and Mrs. H. M. Marcuse.
These lectures and receptions will be held every Thursday at 4 o'clock until Lent, and are a very pleasant addition to Richmond's society circles.

Miss Mary Drewry, who is spending the holidays at home, gave a charming entertainment New Year's evening, in honor of her guest, Miss Bertna Adams, of Bon Air. Miss Drewry is the charming daugh-ter of Major Clay Drewry, of "Minneola." and many couples danced the Old Virginia reel at her home, among them being Misses Martha Lundin, Lil-lian Binford, Mary Moulton, Louise Her-bert, Nellie Gordon, Bessie Gordon, of North Carolina; Octavia Reid, of Smith-field, Va.; Helen Stevens, Nannie Waddill, Essie Archer, Alice Doyls, Mary Drake, Sarah Baughman, Carrie Neal, Minnie Beers, Madge Montgomery, Hattie Shields and Lisa Archer; Messrs. Frank O'Ferrall, Paul Stevens, Ott Drake, James Drake, Walter Chewning, V. P. I.; Samuel Regester, Cabell Fitz-gerald, William Archer, John West, Charlie Larus, William Turner, Allen Newton, Bradley Johnson, Irving Blair and Allen, of Alabama.

Captain William M. Myers, commanding the Richmond Howitzers, entertained the officers and men of his command most delighfully at his home, No. 1022 West Grace Street. The dining-room was beautifully decorated in running cedar and holls, while colored lamps and wax tapers in silver candelabra cast a soft glow over the pretty scene. The table was covered with Battenburs lace over red satin, in the center of which was a large mound of holly. Sliver candelabra covered with crimson shades stood at the four corners. Charming hospitality was dispensed during the evening, and the occasion was one of gallant Howitzers. Captain Myers was most graciously assisted in receiving his men by Mrs. William W. Myers, Mrs. E. Withers Sydnor, Miss Sallie E. Wray, Miss Mary Myers, Mr. E. Withers Sydnor, Mr. J. Withers Myers and Mr. George H. My-the most delighful in the history of the ers.

Miss Kate Myers presided most charmingly over the punch bowl, and Miss Elizabeth Myers over the egg-nog.

The "Original Ten" gave a most en joyable german at the Belvidere Hall last week, which was chaperoned by Mrs. Albert Wise and Miss Bessie Flick, of New York.

Some of those present were Misses Rhonie Hutzler. Florence Thalhimer, Florence Levy. Alma Kahn, of Norflik, Va.: Ella Cohen, M. Junyce Brauer and Myra Zanda, of Cincinnati, O.; Messrs. Lee A. Whitlock, Edward Lovenstein, Sidney Gunst, Louis L. Leibermuth, Percy Ezekiel, Robert Brauer, Henry Schwarzchild, Melvin Stern, Walter cy Ezekiei, Schwarzchild, Whitlock and R. Lee Kempner, of the University of Virginia.

Mrs. W. W. Davies' entertainment was among the most enjoyed of the New Year's Eve gatherings, and was given in honor of her daughter, Miss Gussie Davies, and her sister, Miss Marguerite Da-vies, Miss Gussie Davies making her first bow in Church Hill society...

The home was beautifully lighted with banquet lamps and decorated with palms, holly and mistletoe. In the dining-room were silver candelabra, and the centrepiece of red roses and carna-

Those who were invited were Misses guerite Davies, Neille Hinds, vioa Chalkley, Lucile Johnson, Fannie Tallaferro, Mamie Owens, Marr Curtis, Ruth Mid dleton, Alice Frayser, Estelle Poyster, Bessie Scott, Mabeth Russell. Mary Gammon, Hattie Robinson; also, Messrs.
Frank Hinds, Guy Cherry, Pilchard
Moere, Arthur Clammitt, Weldon HardMoere, Arthur Clammitt, Weldon Hard-Moore, Arthur Clemmitt, Weldon Hardgrove, Alex. Thornton, Mr. Caldwell, Dr. L. Taliaforro, —Lumsden, Andrew Cox, Mr. Russell, W. G. Fanshaw, Carroll Jones, J. Taylor, Jimmie Jackson.

Major W. H. Sands gave a delightful stag party at Murphy's Monday in hon-or of Mr. J. A. Herman Junger, of Pittsburg. Those who accepted Major Sands' hospitality were Messrs. J. H. Capers, A. von Rosenegk, R. Theodore Ellyson, George Schoen, R. H. M. Harrison, John R. Carlton, H. M. Boykin, C. Nesbitt, Samuel H. Bowman and A. Nessort. Preston Belvin.

Mrs. George Randolph Cannon was a charming hosters last week, giving an elegant luncheon in honor of Mrs. Nathaniel Lancaster, of New York. The table was daintily decorated with cut flowers and lace.

The guests were Misses Lancaster, Mrs. H. A. White, of Lexington; Miss Sue Wellford, Mrs. Nathaniel Fraser, Mrs. Thomas Cary Johnson, Mrs. Ben. Alsop. Mrs. W. C. Bentley, Mrs. W. S. Campbell, Mrs. Frank Isaacs and Mrs. John

The Woman's Club came in for its share of popularity last Monday, many of the society favorites being present. Although the usual weekly entertainment was missed by some, others en-joyed the time allowed for social intercourse, and a talk with Mrs. Pleasanton course, and a talk with Mrs. Pleasanton Conquest, who presided over the teatable. Among the out-of-town guests lin, of Huntington, West Virginia; Mrs. Page Massie, Miss Dunbar Roy, of Atlanta; Mrs. Frederick Smallman, of Chattanogea. Tenn.: Mrs. James S. Suth-Chattanooga, Tenn.; Mrs. James S. Suth-Chattanooga, Tellin, Mrs. Hin, of untington, West Virginia; Mrs. Thomas Ballard, of Washington; Smoot, of Staunton, and Mrs. H. Fakoner Grant, of Charlottesville.

The Misses Carlton gave one of the most delightful of the many New Year's entertainments at their home on Grove

An amusing game of hearts was played, An amusing game of hearts was played, the prizes being obtained by Miss Adele Clark, Miss Mary McCarthy and Mr. John E. Fowler. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Georgh R. Townsend, Misses Louise and Mary McCarthy, Elenor Davis, of Lynchburg; Adele and Gertrude Clark, Bessie Lambert, Mamie Raughman and Messrs. George A. Nolting, Jr., H. Brannock Carlton, Marion B. Bahm, John E. Fowler, Morgan, ing, Jr., H. Brannock Carlton, Marion B. Rahm, John E. Fowler, Morcan, James G. Florence, J. L. Kerr, Morgan, George H. Keesee, O. M. Davis, Jeannett Burruss.

The approaching Charity Ball is causing much interest in the social world, especially since the announcement that brass band had been secured by the Music Committee and an old-fashioned Virginia ball would be the programme of the evening, followed by an elegant sup-

The decorations are to be on an elaborate scale, turning the Masonic Temple into a vall-room prepared in the time of Washington.

The lady patronesses are holding meetings frequently to prepare for the lath and to make the occasion one grand success.

Tickets may be procured at the residence of Mrs. Carter Scott, No. 402 East Franklin Street. Onlookers may procure tickets that night at the door, at the rate of 50 cents each. Governor and Mrs. A. J. Montague are now settled at the mansion, which is made quite bright again with the sounds of childish laughter. Little Miss Gay, the of childish laughter. Little Miss Gay, the eldest daughter, won many friends by her quaint manners at the receation, while little Jeanette sat like a little princess during the inaugural ceremonies. The baby is a boy, whom it is hoped by Mr. and Mrs. Montague's friends, may one day be the Governor of the Commonwealth. wealth.

Altogether the mansion promises to be famed for Virginia hospitality, and many times will Mrs. Montague, before the dawn of '93, be the gracious hostess.

Miss Edna Forbes was the charming ostess of a theatre party, followed by a supper, to witness the "Telephone Girl," in honor of her guest, Miss Caro-line James, of New York. Her guests were Misses Gertrude Cameron, Eleanor Bosher, Grace Shields, Elise and Eliza-beth Davenport, Lulie Whitlock, Messrs. Jordan Leake, William Grant, Charles W. Williams, Blanchard Forbes, Robert Campbell, Paul Blanchard, Granville Gray, and W. A. Smith.

Mrs. George Stevens gave a delightful morning card party in honor of Miss Myles, of New Orleans, last week. Four-hand euchre was played, with Japanese fans as tallies. At the conclusion of play an elegant luncheon was served. Among the guests were Misses Flora and Jean Cameron, Margaret Shields, Constance Cameron, Margaret Snielas, Constance Knox, Dalsy Chamberlayne, Essie Ar-cher, Alice Larcomb, of Washington; Elizabeth Davenport, Helen O'Ferrall. Elizabeth and Loulie Whitlock, Fannie Wortham, Justine Moran, of Detroit; Maria Mosely, Janie Wingo, Lucy and Mary Hayse, Bertha Atkinson, Mabel Walker and Grace Swasey.

Mrs. Bland Spotswood Smith was the Mrs. Bland Spotswood Smith was the charming hostess Friday night at a delightful card party, at the conclusion of which and elidous supper was served on the small tables. The highest score was made by Mesdames C. E. Doyle and Isaac N. Jones. Among the guests were Mesdames Isaiah White, Harry Webster, C. W. P. Brock, Isaac N. Jones, James Keith, Elliott, C. C. Walker, Benjamin Nash, S. W. Travers, A. M. Tyler, Edward Crump, J. Thompson Brown, Hen-ningham Spillman, Waddill, Armistead Wellford, Misses Lucetta Knox, Josephine Knox, Bessie Smith, Mattie Hanes, Katherine Smith, Mary Elizabeth Moore, Drewry, Misses Manson, Mrs. C. E. Doyle, Messrs. Harry Webster, Richard Pegram, Clemens Knox, Colonel M. L. Spotswood, and Dr. Armistead Wellford.

Among the social events of the coming week is the appearance of Innes' Band week is the appearance of Innes' Band at the Academy Monday night, the board of patronesses being composed of Mrs. George W. Stevens, Mrs. S. W. Travers, Mrs. T. William Pemberton, Mrs. Virginius Newton, Mrs. Joseph Bryan, Mrs. W. J. Whitehurst, Mrs. E. C. Minor, Mrs. Charles Dayenport, Mrs. E. L. Bemiss, Mrs. J. Taylor Ellyson, Mrs. G. A. Davenport, Mrs. J. D. Crump, Mrs. W. S. Forbes, Mrs. Arthur B. Clark, Mrs. J. Scott Parcish, Mrs. R. S. Bosher, Mrs. E. D. T. Myers, Jr., Mrs. Clarence Milhelser, Mrs. H. T. Melony, Mrs. J. A. Le Froy, Miss Katherine Hawes, Mrs. N. V. Eandolph, Mrs. E. D. Hotchkiss,

Katherine Hawes, Mrs. N. V. Randolpn, Mrs. E. D. Hotchkiss,

Miss Lillian M. Noel gave a party to her little friends New Year's evening. Among those who enjyed the merry g mes wee: Misss Jen ie Sublett, Ruth Morgan. Myrle Owens, Fannie Adams, Lucile and Eugenia Johnson, Inez Goddin, Lelia Wood, Madge Satterwhite, Masters Edward Cardoza, John Field, Walter Wrenn and others.

Miss Mary Overton Haw was During the evening fortunes were told by gilded walnuts and cakes, in which by gilded walnuts and cakes, in which by gilded walnuts and cakes, in which dee." Among the Richmonnd guests who enjoyed the old fashioned Christmas > was performed by Rev. Carey E. Morgan, and was witnessed only by intimate friends of the family. The bride was attired in a handsome tailor-made costume of brown cioth, with hat and gloves to match, and carried bride's roses. The couple lett immediately after the ceremony for Elizabeth, N. J., their future home.

> Mr. Delbert Maybee, of the Syracuse University of Art, who has been spending the holidays with his parents. Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Maybee, returned to the univer-sity on Thursday. Mr. Maybee is a young man of rare talent and has every promise of making a fine artist.

> Mr. John M. Higgins and Miss Eleanor Higgins left for New York Friday to wish bon voyage to Mrs. Charles M. Caughy, Miss Marit Higgins and Miss Kathleen Caughy who salled yesterday on the "Fuerst Bismarck" for an extended trip abroad.

The regular meeting of the Richmond Cmapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy will be held at Lee Camp Hall at 4 o'clock next Wednesday afternoon. Arrangements for the annual tea will be made and other important mat-ters discussed. All persons interested in Confederate work are invited.

Mr. L. Berger Moran, of Charlottes-ville, gave a box party in Washington Friday evening in honor of his daughters, Miss Moran and Miss Eleanor B. Moran Their guests were Major and Mrs. Thomas Newton Wood, U. S. M. C.; Miss Elizabeth Baker, Mr. Zebinoz, of the Russian Embassy, and Mr. Pulido, charge d'affaires of Venezueia. Mr. and Mrs. Moran and the Misses Moran are stop-ping at the Go'don for the winter. The Misses Moran have a host of friends in this city who watch their movements Misses Rebie and Roberta Ellerson, of Ingleside, are at Ars. Duval's for the winter, and are warmly welcomed by their friends. Their mother, Mrs. A. R. Eller-son, will spend the month of January in Asheville, visiting her daughter, Mrs. Claybrook James.

'Fresh Gleanings in American Folk Lore" will be the subject of the after-noon Monday at the Woman's Club, with Mrs. W. T. Kobins as the entertainer, while Mrs. Landonia R. Dashiell will be while Mrs. Landon are Daniel with the chairman of the occasion. Namy visitors are in the city and will grace the club by their presence, and will be warmly welcomed at the informal reception which always follows. The "I. D. K. Social Club entertained

The "I. D. R. Social Club entertained their friends Tuesday evening at Powell's Halls at an excellent supper, to watch the old year out and the new year in. The members and invited guests assembled about 9 o'clock, and games were traduced to make the supper of the sup indulged in until midnight, when all were invited to an abundantly supplied table

Our Offerings Never Fail to Strike the Responsive Chord of the Thrifty.

$17.95 for large 5-piece Tapestry-Covered Parlor Suite worth $22.00. $24.50 for 5-piece Silk Damask-Covered Parlor Suite worth $30.00. $9.75 up for 3-piece Damask-Covered Parlor Suite.

$8.95 for three-piece Bedroom Suite, consisting of bedstead, dressing case and washstand. $12.75 for solid oak Bedroom Suite worth $18.

$24.50 for large swelled front oak Bedroom Suite worth $30.

mahogany, or bird's-eye maple, with and without mirror, at most any price you may wish.

Chiffoniers in oak, worth $7. $7.75 for swelled front, oak Chiffonier worth $11. $8.95

$3.95

for handsome pol-ished Chiffonier, with White Enameled and Brass Beds of every description.

$2.95 for the best White Enameled Bed ever offered at $4.50. $3.75 for White Enameled Bed worth $5.50. $4.95 for White Enameled Bed worth

Carpets and Rugs. Carpets of every description. A most extensive assortment of Ingrains, Brussels, Velvets, Axminster, etc.

Heavy Ingrain Carpets, yard 35c Extra quality Ingrain Carpets, yard . . 60c Heavy Brussels Carpet yard 70c All Floor Coverings made, laid and lined ever shown in this city; newest designs, golden oak, from $9.75 to $200.

Our Liberal Credit System at Your Service.

$12.50 for large oak Sideboard-$15.95 for Sideboard like cut above. Nothing like it shown anywhere for less than $25.00.

$22.95 for very large and handsome Sideboard worth $30.

Chairs of every de-scription for bedroom or dining, in oak or mahogany finish.

69c for solid oak, cane arms. Cost you $1 anywhere.

85c for solid oak Chair worth $1.50, for large oak Diner worth $2.

MEYER & PETTIT,

Southern Furniture and Carpet Co., Cor. Foushee and Broad Streets.

the club.

The supper was under the direction of the following Committee of Arrangements: misses Ida Broadwick, Evic Gates, Maud Chatman and Missrs, John Timberlake, Willie Baker and Alex. Rich-

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Fairfax are visiting at No. 104 East Franklin Street.

Miss Josephine Tyler was among the guests at a card party given by Miss Maude Gunthur, at her home in Balti-Mr. and Mrs. David W. Chalmers and daughter, who have been spending the holidays with Mrs. Rountree on Park Avenue, have returned to their home in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Whitlock have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Miss Susie Whitlock, to Mr. Simon M. Block, the son of Mr. and Mrs. extended tour abroad. M S Block The ceremony will take place January 15th at 7:30.

A pleasant New Year's gathering was that of Mrs. Minetree at her residence, No. 120 South Sixth Steet. Refresh-ments, music and games were enjoyed ments, municipality by those present.

Mr and Mrs James Tinsley and their daughters, Misses Clare, Irene, Maggle and Augusta Tinsley, gave an old-fash-ioned New Year's reception at their beau-tiful country home, "Picuenocque," near this city. Many people drove out to extend their greeting and accept of old Virginia hospitality.

The New Century Club will meet Tuesat the residence of Miss Kate

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Mountcastle have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Miss Adeline Virginia Mountcastle, to Mr. Luthur Goleston Wroldridge, the ceremony to take place January 15th in Olivet Presbyterian Church, New Kent county.

An enjoyable Twelfth-Night forman will be that of the Richmond Assembly, Temple at half-past 9. Mr. Adolphus Blair introducing some very appropriate

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Miller gave a charming card party Thursday night. Handsome prizes were awarded to the successful players of progressive euchre An elegant oyster supper was served at the conclusion of the evening.

At the meeting of the "Stay-at-Home" Whist Club at the re 'dence of Captain and Mrs. Harry Webster, the highest score was obtained by Captain Webster and Mrs. Benjamin Palmer, north and south, and Mr. Thomas Moore and his dummy east and west. The marriage of Miss Madge Lamb and

Dr. Alonzo A. Bilisoly has been arranged for the 16th instant, the ceremony being quietly preformed at her father's home.

Miss Lamb is the charming daughter of Colonel William Lamb, of Norfolk, the appouncement of her engagement was Miss Alma Christian has issued invita tions for an "at home" on January 5th, from 4 to 6 o'clock. Miss Christian lives on Barton Heights, and many of her friends from this city will be present. The marriage and reception Thursday of Miss Maria Williams and Mr. Catlett Williams will be among the leading social

The West End Violet Social Club will meet at the home of Miss Bessie Bar num, No. 407 Randolph Street, on Tuer-next. As this is the first meeting to events of the week.

to eat and drink to the good health of be held after the holidays, all members are requested to be present Mr. and Mrs. George L. Currie, who spent the Christmas holidays at St.

> who were up for the Governor's reception Wednesday night, have returned to their home in Hampton. Dr. Robert Bryan left Wednesday for Augustine and Jacksonville, Fla., have

Judge and Mrs. Edgar E. Montague, returned to the city.

New York, whence he will proceed to Vienna to continue his studies. The Confederate Memorial Literary Society will meet Thursday, January 9th, at 12 M., to act on the revision of the con-stitution. The Central Committee of the S. P. V.

will meet Tuesday, January 7th, at

She left this city Wednesday, followed by the best wishes of her friends, and joined her sister, Mrs. Charles M. Caughy, who accompanied her on her di patcher for the Seaboard Air Line at Caugna, was

A delightful party, containing some of Richmond's popular girls, will leave for a European tour in April, chaperoned by Miss Maria Blair, who is such a charming traveling companion. Mr. and Mrs. John Hunter, Jr., who spent the holidays in the country, have returned home. Miss Daisy Vaughan, who has been spending the holidays at Frederic'ks Hall, has returned to the Woman's College.

Miss Maria Blair will lecture next Friday at the Richmond Female Semi-nary, taking as her subject "London." Mr. and Mrs. George Curris have re-

Mrs. Robert Curtis and her daughter. Mary, are 'spending the winter in Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Gavin Blanton, to the turned from a delighful trip to Florida.

regret of their many friends, left Wed-nesday for a three-months' visit to New Yerk. Mr. and Mrs. Martineau, of Eric, Pa. were the guests of honor at a card party given by Mrs. William Miller last week. Misses Lilla Bellamy and Fannie Tay-tor, of Wilmington, N. C., are now in the city, visiting Mrs. Charles E. Borden, of

No. 514 West Franklin Street. Miss Sue Spillman was among the dancers at the bal poudre in Petersburg last

Mrs. A. W. Kent is the guest of Miss Mary Weller Lewis. Miss Elliot, of Savannah, who is visiting Mrs. E. C. Christian, will, in a few days, be the guest of Mrs. Allen. Miss Mary Buford is visiting Mrs. Junius F. Lynch, in Norfolk.

Miss Elizabeth Field, of Omaha, Neb., is visiting in this city, and was at the Mansion Wednesday night. Miss Stillwell, of Savannah, is visiting Mrs. Samuel Marshall, on Chestnut Hill. Miss Louise Hickson, of Danville, is George C. Hagan, attended the reception Wednesday night.

with Mrs. Charles Noell, in Danville, has

N. Y., is visiting Miss Bessie Darger, Mesdames Samuel Shoemake and Black-

Miss Nannie Holt Wheeler, of Buffalo,

Mrs. John G. Willams, Jr., will be the guest in a few days of Mrs. J. D. V. Denial R. V. Daniel.

The Entertainment Committee will meet at the residence of Mrs. Arthu. Le-froy, No. 118 Sast Franklin Street, Monday at noon.

The patronesses of the Charity Ball will meet Monday at noon at the dence of Mrs. Carter Scott.

NEWS OF THE RAILROADS. Mr. Witt Made Chief Train Dispatcher Hers

o' Seaboard Air Line. Atlanta, Ga., has been transferred to this

Main-Street Station. He is a brother of Mr. Witt, who occupies the position of chief disputcher with the Atlantic Coast Line. President Stevens, of the Chesapeake and Ohio, will make a tour of the flood damaged James River division on Monday. No estimate is yet given out con-cerning the loss, but at the offices yes-terday it was stated that things were again getting into shape. Mr. Mortimer Broaddus, agent for the Cumberland Gap Dispatch, Louisville, Henderson and St. Louis Railway Com-pany, is in the city.

A special service will be held at the Y. M. C. A. Hall of the Main-Street Station of the Cheraprake and Ohio and Seaboard Air Line this afternoon at 3.30 o'clock.

Curse of DRINK

White Ribbon Remedy.

Can Be Given in Glass of Water, Tea or Coffee Without Patient's Knowledge.

write Ribbon Remedy will cure or destroy the diseased appetite for alcoholio stimulants, whether the patient is a confirmed inebriate, "a tippler," social drinker, or drunkard. Impossible for any one to have an appetite for alcoholic liquors after using White Ribbon Remedy. ENDORSED BY MEMBERS of W. C. T. U.

DORSED BY MEMBERS of W. C.
T. U.

Mrs. Moore, superintendent of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, writes: "I have tested White Ribbon Remedy on very obstinate drunkards, and the oures have been many. In many cases the Femedy was given secretly. I cheerfully recommend and endorse White Ribbon Remedy Members of our union are delighted to find a practical and economical treatment to aid us in our temperance work."

Mrs. West, president of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, writes: "I know of so, many people redeemed from the curse of drink by the use of White Ribbon Remedy that I carnestly request you to give it a trial." Druggists or by mail, St. Trial package free by writing

Miss Louise H'cksen, of Danville, is visiting friends in the city.

Miss Darnell, of Kentucky, with Mrs. George C. Hagan, attended the reception Wednesday night.

Mrs. Joe Noeil, who spent the holidays

Mrs. Joe Noeil, who spent the holidays